

African American History Hike

Sunday, October 1 - 11:00 am

Appalachian Trail Conservancy Visitor Center
799 Washington Street, Harpers Ferry, WV 25425

Discover the rich African American history of Harpers Ferry along the Appalachian Trail!

Join the Appalachian Trail Conservancy (ATC) in partnership with the Harpers Ferry National Historical Park for this 1 mile guided hike, led by a National Park Service ranger.

- Learn about Storer College, the Niagara Movement and John Brown's Raid
- Explore the campus of Storer College and tour Lockwood House
- Walk on the Appalachian Trail and learn the history of Jefferson Rock

Registration is recommended for this event.

Email lpotteiger@appalachiantrail.org or call (304) 930-5267 by September 28.

For more info, visit www.appalachiantrail.org/events.

