

ATC'S EMERGING LEADERS' SUMMIT

"100 YEARS. ONE FUTURE"
Blazing the Trail ahead

OCTOBER 10-12

NEW JERSEY SCHOOL OF CONSERVATION

1 Wapalanne Rd, Sandyston, NJ 07826

AGES 18-30

Join us for a weekend of outdoor skills training, conservation learning, and community building just footsteps from the Appalachian Trail

No cost to attend - travel scholarships available

APPLY: <https://appalachiantrail.org/els>

Appalachian Trail Conservancy

"100 YEARS. ONE FUTURE"

Blazing the Trail ahead

WHO SHOULD APPLY FOR THE SUMMIT?

- Young Adults, Ages 18 to 30
- Representing different education levels, work experience, & outdoor experience
- Interested in learning about Appalachian Trail Stewardship
- Passionate about empowering others to make the outdoors & the Appalachian Trail a welcoming place
- Looking to build community through shared learning and experience

Priority will be given to those residing in the eastern United States

The Appalachian Trail Conservancy (ATC) is committed to ensuring the Appalachian Trail is an accessible and welcoming place for all. The Emerging Leaders' Summit is dedicated to building diverse groups of leaders, recognizing the history of the Appalachian Trail, and carrying these lessons into the future. We strive to ignite passion within the next generation of conservation leaders.

Appalachian Trail Conservancy